

Colorado State University

Faculty Council Statement

November 5, 2008

The faculty of Colorado State University expresses its thanks to President Penley for his service to the university. CSU has made significant progress under his direction and he leaves with the university in a strong academic position. We look forward to working with Tony Frank in his interim role, as he has always been a strong advocate for open, shared governance.

Richard Eykholt, Chair