*This public notice was originally posted on August 19, 2022. It was updated on August 29, 2022, to include a reference to the second listening session on August 31, 2022, and was further updated on August 31, 2022 to reference the listening session on September 1, 2022.

TO: Members of the Public

FROM: Dr. Nathaniel Easley Jr., Secretary, Board of Governors

SUBJECT: Official Notice of Colorado State University Presidential Search Advisory Committee Meeting

This serves as official notice pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-6-402(2)(c) and (3.5) of upcoming meetings of the Colorado State University Presidential Search Advisory Committee. These meetings will be conducted remotely via videoconference or in person, as noted in detail below.

The upcoming meetings of the Search Advisory Committee are listening sessions to hear from stakeholders about what qualities they want to see the next President of Colorado State University bring to the campus. Accordingly, members of the public are welcome to participate and give input during these meetings when asked by the meeting facilitator. Please understand the opportunity for public input may be limited and managed by the meeting facilitator and input may be solicited through written or verbal comments, depending upon availability and time limitations during each meeting. Public comment will be limited to input about the search for the next President of Colorado State University.

Currently, the Search Advisory Committee is not planning to move into Executive Session during these upcoming meetings. However, Executive Session may be held by the Search Advisory Committee for purposes of receiving legal advice from General Counsel on specific questions about the search process, which is confidential pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-6-402(3)(a)(II) and (3.5).
